

My Brother's Barely Human

My brother's barely human
He's hairy like an ox —
His clothes seem to be shrinking,
And his hooves poke through his socks.

My brother's barely human
He wants to hibernate —
And like a grumpy grizzly,
He gets up really late.

My brother's barely human
His voice a lion's growl —
Though sometimes when he wants to roar,
He screeches like an owl!

My brother's barely human
Skin like an ocelot's —
Or do I mean a leopard's?
Well — either way, there's spots.

My brother's barely human
And like a skunk he stinks —
If YOU don't want his problems,
Don't spray yourself with Lynx!
