

The Bath Dragon

The Bath Dragon lives deep under your tub quietly listening for your very last scrub he waits to hear the end-of-bath tug when you reach down and carefully pull out the plug!

He smells the fresh human and knows they've been washing he breathes in the scent of the splishing and splashing he knows what this means for his lovely bathtub – that he'll soon get a swooshing of muckityglub.

He GROWLS as the water goes down with a whoosh bogeys and sand swirling round with a swoosh chocolate spread and modelling clay a scab that fell off in the bath today.

Jam and ear wax, down they go with the scrapings from your dirtiest toe and how loud and roarish the Bath Dragon gets as he scrubbles in bubbles and gets himself wet!

*Urgle gurgle gargle shloop
I love to wallow in dirty bath soup!
Magnificent muck and delicious dirt Smashwanglingly tasty to make me Burrrp!*