

Fresh Start

Folded up socks not yet stretched out by feet,
Snow without footprints, beds with fresh sheets.
Pizza unbitten, a freshly mowed lawn,
Curtains not open, paper undrawn.

Paths not yet walked down, food not yet tried,
Unclimbed trees, un-swum seas, un-slidden slides.
First words with new friends, first hugs, first smiles,
The first steps we take, can transport us miles.

Keep finding beginnings and open your heart -
Each moment's a chance to make a fresh start.
