

Blue

If you're feeling blue, seek out the yellow sun,
Let the colours mix together, let the colours run.
Let your blue be warmed by those sunny yellow rays,
Enjoy tiny flecks of green in your lowest, bluest days.

If you're feeling blue, look for loving, caring red,
Let the colours mix together, let the colours spread.
Let your blue be hugged in a loving red embrace,
Watch shiny specks of purple put blue back in her place.
