

Bet You Didn't Know

It takes fifty licks to eat one scoop of ice cream, humans are not the only animals to dream.
A hippo's lips are two feet wide,
your nose got warmer when you lied.

Ketchup started as a cure for indigestion.
Was it tomato-flavoured? Good question!
Footprints on the moon last 100 million years, when you're old the only part of you to grow will be your ears!

The first food eaten in space was apple sauce!
A grizzly bear runs faster than a horse;
cats can't taste anything that's sweet and only a sea lion can clap to a beat.

A giggle's what you call a group of clowns,
cows can walk upstairs but can't get down!
What weighs less than a penny? A bumblebee bat.
A cheetah doesn't roar like a lion, it purrs like a cat,

So many things I'll bet you didn't know,
like Scotland has 451 words for snow
sneel, feefle, flintdrinkin.
Yup. That's exactly what I was thinkin'!
