

Going the Extra Mile

After Rob Burrow and Kevin Sinfield

How far would you go for a friend

in need?

Would you run a mile?

Would you run a marathon?

Would you wear a goal-wide smile?

Would you pick up knees in hurricanes?

Or would you make fair-weather?

Would you do it just the once? Or time and time again?

Would you bring your buddy with you?

Would you wheel them in their chair?

Would you carry

your hero over the line?

Would you show the world

you care?

Not on your own,

but as a pair.
