

TEARS

Tears are like tadpoles.
They start out very small,
grow as they wiggle down your cheeks,
and give you a frog in your throat.