

In My Apron Pocket

(after Carole Bromley)

A peacock feather, pearly shell,
my small red car and Christmas bell.

An orange lolly (saving that!),
a birthday card made for my cat.

A badge that says I'm four years old,
a medal made of real gold.

My handkerchief, a dried-out frog,
a figure of a little dog.

A purple pen that smells of grapes,
a cracker ring that's love-heart shaped.

A keyring – 'Present from Corfu',
the grandpa that I never knew.
